SIX LESS OF HIM

Gradually his trips down town grew less frequent and he scarcely had been outside of his own residence since his appearance in the public eye. A request to make response to the official notification of his re-election for the Vice-President. It was not, however, until Sunday that intimations began to be received of his extremely critical condition. Always averse to publicity, the Vice-President's family seemed to shrink from all publication concerning his physical condition.

Even when Dr. Jane Gray, a New York city specialist, came to visit him October 20 he was enabled to come and go without attracting public attention. The Vice-President's physicians have been aware, however, for the last fortnight that the malady had made rapid headway and all of them feared that it soon must end fatally.

CLARK'S MESSAGE

Speaker Champ Clark's message to the Sherman family reads:

"You have our heartfelt sympathy in your great sorrow. May God bless you and yours."

Congressman McKinley of Illinois, who managed the pre-convention Taft-Sherman campaign, said:

"A great man and a good man has gone."

Mrs. Jennie T. Hobart, widow of former Vice President Hobart, extended her sympathy "as one who could fully appreciate your great bereavement."

Former Vice President and Mrs. Fairbanks said:

"We loved him as a friend and loved him as an able and truthful public servant."

Governor Wilson of New Jersey sent the following telegram:

"In common with the whole country, Mrs. Wilson and I have been deeply shocked by the death of Vice-President Sherman, and we wish to extend to you our heartfelt sympathy."

WASHINGTON, Oct. 31.—Shortly after noon President Taft signed a formal proclamation announcing the Vice-President's death. It follows:

To the People of the United States:

James Schoolcraft Sherman, Vice-President of the United States, died at his home in Utica, N. Y., at 4:42 o'clock on the evening of October 30, 1912.

In his death the nation has lost one of its most illustrious citizens and one of its most efficient and distinguished public servants.

Elected at an early age to the mayorship of his native city, the continued confidence of his community was shown by his election for ten terms as a representative of the National Congress.

As a legislator he at once won and retained high rank and displayed such attributes of upright and wide statesmanship as to command him to the people of the United States for the second highest office within their gift.

WINS HIGH ESTEEM.

As presiding officer of the Senate he won the respect and esteem of all for his fairness and impartiality. His private life was noble and good. His kindly disposition and attractiveness of character endeared him to all whose privilege it was to know him. His devotion to the best interests of his native land will endear his memory to his fellow countrymen.

In respect to his memory the eminent and various services of this high official and patriotic public servant, I direct that on the day of the funeral the executive officers of the United States shall be closed and all posts and stations of the army and navy shall display the national flag at half-mast and that the representatives of the United States in foreign countries shall pay appropriate tribute to the illustrious dead for a period of thirty days.

In witness thereof I have set my hand and caused the seal of the United States to be affixed.

Done at the city of Washington this 21st day of October in the year of our Lord, one thousand nine hundred and twelve and of the independence of the United States one hundred and thirty-seventh.

PRESIDENT TO ATTEND.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 31.—Senate-at-Arms Randsell of the Senate was today notified from Utica that the funeral of Vice-President Sherman would be held there at 2 p.m. Saturday.

President Taft will leave Washington late tomorrow for Utica to attend the funeral of Vice-President Sherman.

He is traveling in a a private car and will be accompanied by some of his aides and secretaries.

The President early today took up the preparations for honoring the dead Vice-President. Copies of the proclamation issued by President McKinley at the death of Vice-President Hobart were looked up from State Department files and officials prepared to issue a similar proclamation which would close the government offices and half-mast the American flags on embassy and consular buildings throughout the world, at armories and on the ships of the navy at sea.

OUT OF OFFICE.

Two sessions of Congress found Sherman defeated and out of office, but not for long. Henry W. Bentley, Bonelli, Onida, counted him in less than a thousand votes in the race for the Fifty-second Congress.

In the interim Sherman went back to Utica, built up his law practice, and returned to the Fifty-third Congress when he was nominated and elected Vice-President on the ticket with Taft.

His first years in the House brought him into close association with leaders Joseph W. Bailey, later a Senator; Breckinridge Bryan, Bourke Cockran, Dingley, Dooliver Henderson, Payne, Senator Wagner Reed, Windham, Wright, Joe H. Wheeler, and a score of others.

He was a member of the committee in discussion with the tariff and other national policies when his fellow.

TO BE REORGANIZED INTO AN IRRIGATION DISTRICT

MARTINEZ, Oct. 31.—As the result of an adverse judgment rendered against Andrew Portman in the appellate court yesterday, reclamation district No. 799 will be reorganized into an irrigation district. The reorganization of the district has been delayed several years by the litigation and the progress of a large portion of eastern Contra Costa county kept back.

Portman contended that the district in question was not legally organized, but judgment was rendered against him by Superior Judge R. H. Latimer. Since the appeal was taken Portman has disposed of his holdings in the district and the new owners will reorganize without his help.

READS FORECAST
IN FACE OF SUN

Rev. J. S. Ricard of Santa Clara Explains Three-day Law.

SAN JOSE, Oct. 31.—His system of long distance weather forecasting, for which he has gained a nation wide reputation, has been explained in a statement by Rev. Father J. S. Ricard, head of the meteorological observatory of the University of Santa Clara.

"October has seemingly been very quiet," he said, "yet before the month is over we shall have had eight disturbances. Our three day law accounts for them all to the very day of their entrance upon the Pacific coast. Weather can be foreseen one month in advance, and more than that."

"As you look at the sun on this side of latitude 24 degrees north the terminator at your left is the eastern limb, that at your right the western. The central meridian oscillates about a line from top to bottom through the center, with the maximum amplitude of 26 degrees, and seen in projection, coincides with the solar axis of rotation.

"A solar disturbance apparently travels at the rate of 14 degrees a day from east to west. Let now a solar disturbance go right around the sun; there will be four positions when it is 42.2 degrees from both limbs and central meridian front and back. These are the four critical positions, and it is then that a new storm strikes against the coast.

"Such is the three day law, as 42.2 degrees makes three days. All this looks like fiction, or, as Devereux would suggest, heliopotological insanity; but looks often belie. In the study of the sun the facula is keeping its appointments. It is all the way better than the sun itself, but it is hard to see. The facula of October 14, 17 and 20 give disturbance November 4 and 7, 11 to 14, 17 to 20, 23 to 27, and November 30 to December 21.

"Each interval is a warm wave in a barometric depression, with bad weather along its track, while the distances between the intervals are the cool waves in the barometric highs. Attention is called to November 8, 14, 21 and 28 and December 5 for reinforcements either of the existing warm waves or even the ushering in of new ones."

CHINESE GUNMEN IN PORTLAND FOR FIGHT

PORTLAND, Oct. 31.—If another conviction is secured in the Seld-Bing murder case when Lew Soon is brought to trial for the crime there will be trouble in Chinatown, according to traditions made by local Chinese leaders in close touch with the situation, for in the trial of Lew Soon, who is president of the Hop Sing Tong, the bitterest enmity was shown to all friends of the prosecution.

Six gunmen arrived this week from San Francisco to fight for the Hop Sing Tong, if necessary. An extra guard has been placed over the quarters of the Seld-Bing family to have ready men in furthering the persecution. Oh See, the Chinese woman for the love of whom Seld-Bing forfeited his life and was cut to pieces and shipped away from Portland in a trunk, has been placed under guard in the Past Side Room, where she is being cared for.

Wong Si Sam, one of the two Hop Sing tong men who is accused of the murder of Seld-Bing, was convicted recently of a lesser and reduced degree. The trial of the charges against Lew Soon will start November 18.

DAMAGES REFUSED FOR CHARLES I'S DEATH

PORTLAND Oct 31.—After less than an hour's deliberation the jury in the United States district court returned a verdict yesterday in favor of the defendant in the sensational trial for the recovery of $100,000 damages for the death of Charles I, the chimpanzee, the first animal to travel by rail.

It was alleged in the complaint that the chimpanzee had been placed on board a baggage car of the Northern Pacific at Seattle to be transported to Portland and during the trip it had been practically roasted to death in its box or cage, being placed against a steam radiator.

The defense produced testimony that the chimpanzee was suffering from tuberculosis, and also had a severe attack of pneumonia the day previous and the condition was also made that it was probable that the animal was dead before the shipment was made.

SANTA FE MAKING IMPROVEMENTS

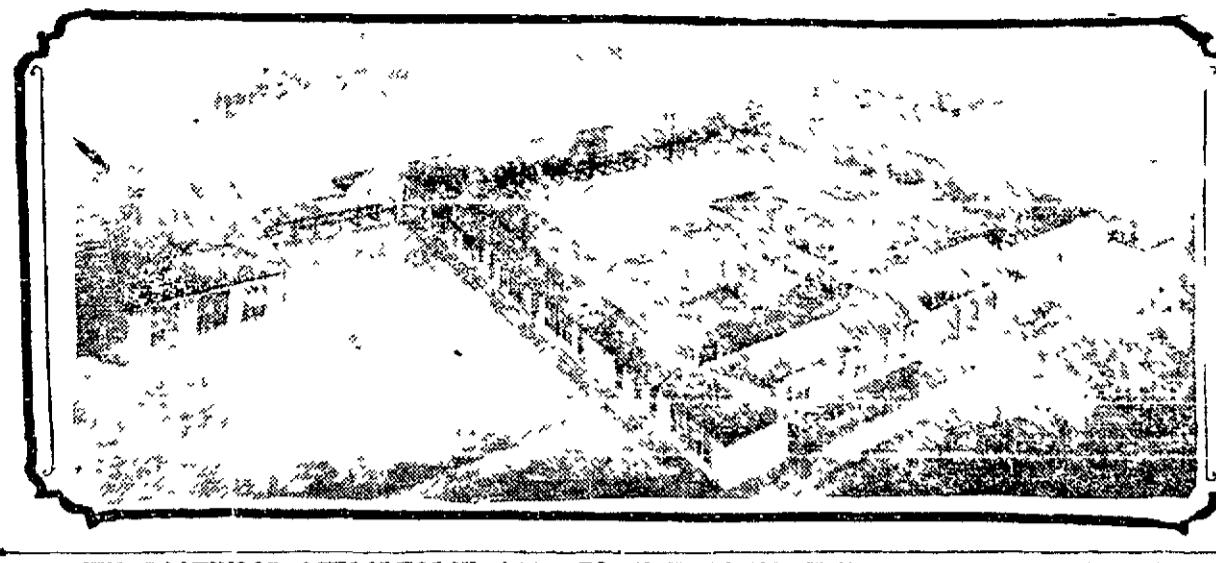

New Freight Mole at Richmond and Double Tracking the Stockton Division.

RICHMOND Oct 31.—The Santa Fe railroad commenced work this morning with a large gang of workmen constructing a second freight slip at its docks on the west side of this city. The company has one passenger and one freight mole here from which its San Francisco boats and barges ply but its trade from foreign ports has increased so of late that another freight slip was needed to handle the large number of barges laden with cars carrying Oriental goods consigned to all parts of America over their lines.

Agent W. B. Trull states that the business of the company at the Richmond station has been increasing steadily for a year past at the rate of $20,000 a month above corresponding months of the previous year, and that all indications point to a still greater increase.

John Veltor, Foster, Cal., states, "I have suffered many years with kidney and bladder trouble, and although I have paid hundreds of dollars to doctors and have taken all kinds of kidney medicines, I could never get any relief until I tried your medicine. Please tell them effect of a complete cure I have never been bothered with my old trouble since." Wishart's Drug Store.

$500,000 DAMAGES ASKED FROM ROADS

More Than 1500 Complainants Sign the Petition to I. C. C.

WASHINGTON Oct 31.—A petition was filed with the Interstate commerce commission today which constitutes a record in the history of the commission in two respects. It contains the names of 1562 separate complainants who are businessmen of Montana and it demands reparation in the sum of $500,000.

The complaint was directed against the Northern Pacific and 75 other carriers which operate between Atlantic seaboard and the Rocky mountains. Freight rates on all classes and commodities are attacked as unreasonable exorbitant and discriminatory. The commission is asked to reduce the rates from 25 to 50 per cent according to the character of the articles transported, and damages in the amount of $500,000 are demanded for all excessive charges and expenses during the years 1910, 1911 and 1912.

AERIAL TRANSPORTATION CONCERN MAKES INQUIRY

John M. Jones president of the World's Aerial Transportation Company of Boston is at the Hotel St. Mark. He is looking for the best location at Rich mond with a view of establishing a branch factory for the manufacture of the airship owned by his company. Jones states that his company desires to locate such a factory somewhere on the coast and that the climate of California and the opening of the Panama-Pacific Exposition are additional reasons for his wanting to find a suitable location here.

The craft manufactured by this company is alleged to differ from an airship in that it is not a dirigible, but a flying boat, such as the Curtiss Wright and Bleriot machines have, and is known as a helicopter type of machine.

BIG DEPARTMENT STORE TO BUILD AT RICHMOND

RICHMOND Oct 31.—It is stated on what appears to be good authority that representatives of a large department store either of Oakland or San Francisco have closed a deal with the new owners of the Nicholl land at Twenty-third and Macarthur for a large plot which to enter a large department store. The tract owners admit this, but refuse as yet to divulge the names of the parties.

John Veltor, Foster, Cal., states, "I have suffered many years with kidney and bladder trouble, and although I have paid hundreds of dollars to doctors and have taken all kinds of kidney medicines, I could never get any relief until I tried your medicine. A. A. Rogers Should Be Re-elected.

The voters of the new Thirty-fourth Assembly District, who have the needs of the community at heart, could do no better than re-elect Assemblyman A. A. Rogers, who has served them conscientiously and well. Rogers is a fine type of the young American who is making politics once again an honorable profession. He is what the world is pleased to style a self-made man, and in addition is alert, courageous and aggressive in the cause that he believes is the just one. His record in the State Assembly and as a deputy under District Attorney William H. Donahue has demonstrated his unswerving integrity and shown him to be an advocate of sound progressive legislation, who has ideas of his own and is not afraid to express them. He has been singularly successful in securing for his district a able representation in the Assembly and in the passage of measures designed to promote civil and industrial welfare.

Rogers is a native of Alameda county and has always been a leader in the affairs of San Leandro and a warm friend and champion of the interests of his home community. He began his political activities as a deputy in the office of the County Clerk and later was associated with the office of the Tax Collector. He improved his spare moments by studying law, was admitted to practice, and became an honored member of the Alameda County Bar. It was not long before Attorney Rogers accepted an invitation to become a member of the staff of the District Attorney.

Rogers became an Assemblyman two years ago from what was then the Forty-sixth Assembly District. Almost at once he fell into an important role—that of chairman of the County and Township Government Committee which handled all the legislation that affected counties and towns in the State. Alameda county had many occasions to congratulate itself upon having Rogers as chairman of that particular committee, though the young Assemblyman adhered strictly to economical methods and fairplay.

In addition to his work on that committee, Rogers was actively engaged as a member of the following committees: Levees and River Improvements, State Prisons and Reformatory Institutions, Election Laws, Judiciary, Medical and Dental Laws, Public Morals, Pre-apportionment and Revision of Criminal Procedure.

If re-elected on November 5, Rogers will undoubtedly be given even more important assignments at the next Legislature and his influence will be doubly effective. Many measures affecting this county will come up for debate in the Assembly. A. A. Rogers' presence will be needed.

Debts of Oakland and San Francisco.

Here is one of the cunningly phrased half-truths in one of San Francisco's more recent "roorbacks" issued to deceive voters into supporting its initiative consolidation amendment: "It will be interesting to know in view of the attack on San Francisco's bonded indebtedness that Oakland has issued bonds to the extent of 3.79 per cent of the assessed valuation of its property, while San Francisco has only issued bonds to the amount of 3.37 per cent."

This statement is faulty and misleading. The basis of computing the percentage is faulty inasmuch as the assessed valuation of taxable property available for bonding, and not the bonding capacity, is adopted for the purpose. By this method of computation the percentage of the bonded debt to the statutory bonding capacity is minimized. It looks better in print, perhaps, that San Francisco's issued bond debt should be made to appear to be only 3.37 per cent and rely upon the average reader being deceived into believing that the city still possesses a bonding capacity of 96.63 per cent. But it is a tricky and dishonest method of computation, comparison and presentation of the facts.

The records of Auditor and Assessor Gross show that the valuation of taxable property in Oakland for 1912-13 and subject to the statutory limitation of 15 per cent for municipal bonding purposes is $129,270,400.

Oakland's bonding capacity is, therefore, $19,390,560.

Its authorized, uncancelled and unredeemed bonded indebtedness October 25, 1912, amounted to $7,935,840, or 41 per cent of its bonding capacity.

Its authorized bond debt sold and outstanding is $5,530,840, or 28 per cent of the bonding capacity.

Of Oakland's bond authorization, $2,405,000 remains unissued and a municipal liability, although not yet an actual municipal debt.

Oakland's available surplus bonding capacity is now $11,454,720.

Now let us analyze the status of San Francisco's bonded debt on exactly the same lines as the analysis of Oakland's bonded debt.

San Francisco's assessed valuation of taxable property subject to the 15 per cent limitation for municipal bonding purposes is, for the fiscal year 1912-13, $511,194,545.

San Francisco's bonding capacity on the basis of this year's assessment amounts to $76,679,175.

As shown by Auditor Boyle's latest report of the status of San Francisco's bond indebtedness September 10, 1912, that city's authorized, uncancelled and unredeemed bonded indebtedness amounts to $84,981,000, or $8,301,825 (10 per cent) in excess of its bonding capacity.

Bonds sold and outstanding September 10, 1912, aggregated $27,006,300, or 35 per cent of its lawful bonding capacity.

Bonds uncancelled, unredeemed and unsold, San Francisco's liability for which is not repudiated by Auditor Boyle (as San Francisco's dishonest roorbackers repudiate it to mislead voters), although they do not yet constitute a municipal debt, amount to $57,374,700, or 75 per cent of the bonding capacity.

The only offset which San Francisco at present possesses against Oakland's available surplus capacity of $11,454,720, based on a low assessed valuation of taxable property, is an excess of $8,301,825 of its lawful right to contract a bonded indebtedness, although it has raised its assessed valuation of taxable property, subject to bonding, since 1910, as shown in advance proof sheets of the report of the United States census of the assessed valuation of property of cities of 30,000 population and upwards, the enormous sum of over $78,000,000 in order to increase its bonding capacity and reduce the unlawful disparity between it and its authorized bonded indebtedness.

When considered in the light of the attitude taken by San Francisco's "roorbackers" toward the authorized but unissued bonded indebtedness of $57,374,700 of that city, to-wit: that it is a liability and does not come under the operation of the initiative amendment's special provision that "the new consolidated government" shall be liable for all the existing debts and liabilities of any municipal corporation merged therein," it is of interest to note that at every annexation of new territory Oakland never repudiated its liability for an authorized bond indebtedness which it had contracted before annexation and which, at the time annexation was consummated, was unissued; nor has it attempted to saddle any part of such indebtedness on the territory annexed, as San Francisco is planning to do toward the east bay shore cities with its authorized but unissued indebtedness through the instrumentality of the initiative amendment to section 7 of article XI of the constitution. This fact marks the difference in the moral sense of the people of the two cities.

The Bulletin Touts for Stitt Wilson.

The San Francisco Bulletin supports Stitt Wilson, Socialist, for election to Congress over Joseph R. Knowland and predicts that he will be elected by a "snug majority." Wilson has no chance of being elected; it would be a misfortune if he had. But the Bulletin's prediction is but another evidence of its utter unreliability. It assumes that the Progressives will vote solidly for the Socialist candidate.

This assumption places a low estimate on the intelligence and patriotism of the Progressive voters. Thousands of them voted for Mr. Knowland in the primary against a clean candidate of their own party. They voted for Mr. Knowland to testify their appreciation of his splendid work in Congress, not because they had any fault to find with Mr. Stetson.

With very few exceptions, the citizens who voted for Mr. Stetson at the primary will vote for Mr. Knowland on election day. The small defection will be more than made up by Democrats, who regard Mr. Knowland too valuable a representative for this district to part with at present. They will vote for him because they recognize the great service he has rendered his constituency and the nation at large, and for the further reason that he stands head and shoulders above his competitors and in capacity and fitness.

Mr. Knowland's majority at the primary was 12,000; it will be much larger than that next Tuesday—probably double. The voters of the Alameda district are both intelligent and discriminating. They have no use for the shallow theories and the cozening promises of Stitt Wilson; still less for Wilson. They know the difference between merit and bunk, performance and rhetoric, solid talent and gab.

The Bulletin's charge that the Progressives will vote for Stitt Wilson is an indictment of their good sense and good faith, likewise their regard for the public welfare. Fortunately it is unfounded. A better proof that it is unfounded could not be presented than the fact that it is made by the newspaper organ of Abe Ruef and the McNamaras.

Comparative Per Capita Tax Rate.

Oakland taxpayers pay a lower per capita tax—$10.98—than any other city of 30,000 population and upwards on the Pacific Coast; and Berkeley comes next with a per capita tax of $11.70. Why should any of them in either city favor annexation with San Francisco which the United States census report shows was imposing a per capita tax of $20.36 on its taxpayers in 1910 and has since raised the tax rate from $1.647 per $100 to $2.10 and increased its assessed valuation of property $78,000,000 in order to debitedness, which now exceeds its lawful capacity $8,300,000? Every one of the taxpayers in each of these two east bay shore cities should, therefore, vote "NO" on San Francisco's initiative Constitutional Amendment to Section 7 of Article XI, which makes annexation and the raising of the per capita of taxation to the San Francisco level possible.

Consolidation Tammanyized the State of New York. The consolidation San Francisco proposes promises to do the same thing for California. It will reduce the rural voters to the subjection of San Francisco and Los Angeles.

That Consolidation Amendment

There is considerable interest in the proposed constitutional amendment intended to set aside the initiative of over 700,000 very conservative citizens of California to merge the state into a single unit and give the consolidated government by the title of the State of California the power to do whatever it sees fit to do in the interest of the state. It is significant that no general meeting of the state's leading political parties—

DEMOCRATIC AND REPUBLICAN—has been called to consider the proposed amendment.

It is the side of the case that is most difficult to make out. The trial of the suit at Fresno in the three days running met given at Oakdale, Calif., by Ben Wright, attorney for the consolidated, but the verdicts between General Motors and Alameda Jr. will be referred to the trial court.

SAN JOSE, Oct. 31.—Despite the presence of a hand full of San Jose trustees, the town trustees of Santa Clara decided yesterday that it is too late to withdraw and called an election for the annexation of a strip of land between the town limits of Santa Clara and the town limits of Alviso.

This decision cuts San Jose off from its proposed boulevard strip connecting with deep water on San Francisco bay, four miles northeast of Alviso.

With "Merry Widows" They Aid in Americanization of Republic.

CHICAGO, Oct. 31.—Sir Thomas Lipton, when racing in Chicago, is responsible for a movement toward the adoption of the more "proper" hats for Chinese women than are now worn, due to the Patriotic Exposition in progress here. Chinese women are now wearing hats of Chinese design.

"In fact," he continued, "the ideas of today are rapidly turning the ways of the Americans and are clothing clothes made after his pattern."

The Chinese do not have the routine with our political campaigns which are prevalent here. Their sights are more modest. They do not tour the country making speeches, claim of their own great deeds, or humiliate their opponents. They remain quietly at home and wait until the people take their votes have called them to account."

WALL STREET BETS G. O. P. LOSES CONGRESS

NEW YORK, Oct. 31.—More bets were made on the election in Bond Street today, the home of the most recent Senate, than the Democratic and $100,000 that the next House is also Democratic. Other odds: over $1000 against $2000 that Roosevelt does not carry a single New England state; $2000 even that he does not carry the States; $2000 against $1000 that he does not carry eight States, and $2000 to $1000 that he does not carry ten States; $1000 against $2000 that Straus runs third; $500 even that Wilson runs ahead of Straus; $200 even that Roosevelt gets more votes in Kings county than Taft and $500 even on Taft to beat Roosevelt in this State. Some small bets were made of even money on Hodges against Straus.

AUTO RACER LEFT $100.

NEW YORK, Oct. 31.—The will of David L. Bruce-Brown, the widely known automobilist, who was killed while in practice just before the Vanderbilt cup race at Milwaukee one month ago, was filed yesterday. The entire estate, which amounts to $100,000, is bequeathed to Bruce-Brown's mother, Mrs. A. Ruth Bruce-Brown, of this city.

INTEREST IN BIG NORD RANCH BRINGS $150,000

CHICAGO, Oct. 31.—The biggest transfer of real property in the Sacramento valley this year was the sale yesterday of a one-third interest in the big Nord ranch to P. M. Rooney of Sacramento. The seller was Harry Fraser of Chico, and Robert V. Clegg of San Francisco. The purchase price was $150,000 and it is understood it is a spot cash transaction. The ranch is one of the biggest in this section of the State, and is partly devoted to the raising of hogs, of which industry Fraser is the father in this region.

The owners will improve the hog acreage, and with the installation of modern hog-packing machines and other labor-saving devices, expect to revolutionize the hog industry in the valley.

CHURCH FESTIVAL PROVES SUCCESS

St. Anthony's Fair Coins the Dollars for Aid of Orphans.

Active workers in interest of charity or East Oakland to the number of several hundred, have put their shoulder to the wheel and are actively assisting their co-workers who are in raising the St. Anthony's church fair to raise funds for the management of St. Vincent's Orphan Asylum who contemplate the erection of several additional buildings to house their inmates.

The main structure proved to be inadequate for this purpose. It was found necessary by the management of its institution to make these changes.

The country store, known as bootlegger, with an exhibit of native nature was the principal feature of the St. Anthony's fair, last evening, when it attracted large crowds of people from the east bay cities who helped to swell the large fund now on hand.

Women in charge of the San Francisco St. Anthony booth will hold an at home to their friends this evening, when songs and recitations will be the main features in an interesting program of entertainment.

The administration of Anodynes, Drops, Cordials, Soothing Syrups and other narcotics to children by any but a physician cannot be too strongly decried, and the druggist should not be party to it. Members of Aid Association Enjoy Masked Ball; Prizes Given

The night before Hallowe'en was the occasion of an enjoyable masked ball arranged for the pleasure of Abrahamson's Employees Mutual Aid Association in Forest Hall, which had been placed at the disposal of the laymen by Jules Abrahamson, the owner.

From the hour of the grand march until long after the unmasking there was merriment a-plenty for the workers in the Abrahamson store and their friends. The dance was made a success through the efforts of a committee composed of A. Hart, Miss A. Plunkett and Miss Susan Runcie who received the cooperation of the entire association. The employees' organization was founded by Jules Henry and Hugo Abrahamson and has proved to be notably successful as a benefit as well as a social institution.

Prizes were awarded last night as follows:

For the most elaborate costume a pink harem creation to Miss Luis Baldwin.

For the most original costume, gown representing "My City, Oakland," to Mrs. Julia Glavin.

For the most comical costume Dutch character, represented by Jack Litzenstein.

An extra prize was awarded to Harold Jacoby and Paul Levy, representing an Italian and a bear.

During the evening refreshments were served.

OAKLAND TO PAY TRIBUTE TO MIGHTY TEAM TONIGHT

Reception and Theater Party to Be Tendered at the Orpheum

Everybody is going to the Orpheum tonight.

The big public reception and theater parts arranged by THE TRIBUNE in honor of Oakland's mighty champions of the 1912 series in the Pacific Coast league has made a hit and if you don't believe it, go and see.

That Oakland fans and the public in general appreciate the boys of the 1912 championship has been amply demonstrated during the last few days.

It has been demonstrated in the amount of money that has poured into the fund being raised for the various committees.

It has been demonstrated by the rush for seats at the Orpheum tonight.

It has been demonstrated by the numerous letters and phone calls received by

The number of people who know the baseball boys, as they appear in street clothes, is few compared with the number who know them clad in their majestic uniforms, and indeed these people are going to the Orpheum tonight to see the players face to face and help along THE TRIBUNE'S public reception to the champion.

TO BE "SOME AFFAIR."

This reception is going to be some affair.

The yell that will greet them can fifty be compared to the yell that goes up when a favorite lets drive a corking three bagger scoring the winning run.

Just to be present at such an occasion is well worth the price that will come, and that is why the Orpheum is going to be packed tonight.

It will be the last public appearance in a body of the famous 1912 fighting Oaks, who will be joined by their wives, with their das' opponents, the All Stars, many of whom are well known favorites, in the boxes on the opposite side.

Mayor Frank K. Mott and the city's commissioners, will be present also in a box to do honor to the boys.

When the enthusiasm of the reception has quieted down and THE TRIBUNE drummers have rung their final flourish to the victory, the big show will begin.

MARVELOUS ACROBATICS.

First there will be the Flying Russells in their truly marvelous aerial work, which is done with great rapidity.

Next come Lewis and Doty, a pair of ringers comedians who sing and get off glibly telling stuff that causes roars of laughter. "Look at that Hat," and see the "Smile Face."

Gustav Meissner's comic play "Gratitude" is third and it is worth a special visit alone. Mann is too well known to need an introduction. He appears as actor and talented comedian to do his best.

Closing the first half of the show will come Mary Elizabeth, that winsome and thoroughly charming comedienne who had a great favorite during her Orpheum appearance, and whose songs and stories are different from those usually rendered by vaudeville comedienne.

Now comes the fire works.

After a selection by Herr Kowalski's concert orchestra, B. A. Forster will open the proceedings and introduce Mayor Mott.

Mayor Mott will tell the audience some facts about the baseball team, and the players will hear what is in the hearts of the fans.

The words of appreciation will be emphasized by the presentation to the team of the big purse gathered by the citizens' committee, a purse that in a short time will show the players that Oakland is proud of the team and mighty joyful over its wonderful victory.

NOW FOR THE YELL.

Now yell.

But the show is not over.

Mary Quive and Paul McCarty open the second half with a swelling and variable musical act, in which both sing and dance, and McCarty plays the piano and Miss Quive, the violin.

The next act will be Leonard Gauthier's animated toy shop in which four cute and some lively dogs cause a lot of fun.

If Jack Wilson does not stop proceeding with the next turn of the bill a big guess goes wrong. Jack is a winning team leader and has the longest line of fans and friends in the audience. Franklyn Battie sings some good songs with that glorious voice of his and Ada Lane adds to the fun in a striking manner.

The Arzards, two of them, in their exhibition of acrobatics, will add to the fun tests come next, the finish is a good thrilling melodramatic motion picture.

THE TRIBUNE has told the public through its columns of the superior merit of the entertainment, and the public will go to the show without further comment is unnecessary. However, THE TRIBUNE wishes to repeat that this is the last and most effective chance to show the 1912 proudest winners that Oakland is mighty proud of them. Three cheers and a tiger. Hip hip.

BALKING AUTO GIVES OUT ELOPEMENT SECRET

CHICO, Oct. 31—The balking of an automobile at the last and crucial moment frustrated the secrecy of a runaway marriage here yesterday, when James Dupen, a prominent jeweler of this city, and Miss Beulah Russell, who had planned to secretly slip away to San Francisco and wed, were compelled to give publicity to their plan by hiring an express wagon in which to convey them to the depot, the hour being too early for taxis.

Their auto was ready at 1:30 o'clock, when they expected to board a train. The train was three hours late and when they finally started the auto balked and refused to go. The racket awakened the mailman, who had passed an express wagon into service, left at daylight and was married last evening.

Dr. Hartman Invites Doctors to Visit His Office

In my last article I referred to the fact that I have written to many doctors and have used Peruna and have offered to write me testimonials if I would pay them for their trouble.

The publication of these facts has caused some comment, especially from some of my correspondents from foreign countries. The doctors themselves especially emphasize the subject. I give an extract from a letter just received by a doctor. He says:

Dear Doctor Hartman: I have read your article in the Tribune concerning Peruna. I think you are right in your statement that you are perfectly welcome to examine them if you will call at my office. And at the same time I have many other letters come as remarkable as those that you may receive. In fact I will open to you my files, which are so arranged that hundreds of thousands of letters covering the last 20 years are at hand. You may spend as much time as you please in looking through my files. I am sure you will find the most remarkable letters ever looked at. They tell the story of thousands of invalids who have been cured of all sorts of diseases by Peruna. I wish, however, you had given the names and addresses of the doctors you refer to in your article. Your statements would have been much more convincing if you had done so. You will excuse me if I express some doubt as to the real standing of the physicians that you refer to. Do you mean to say that you have in your files letters which you quoted from in your article? I will call at your office. I am the editor of a medical journal. The old Peruna is now called Katarino. If you drugist or dealer does not keep it for sale write the Katarino Company, Columbus, Ohio, and they will tell you all about it.

Peruna Vi-a-lin and La-cu-in manufactured by the Peruna Company, Columbus, Ohio, sold at all drug stores.

SPECIAL NOTICE—Many persons inquire for the old-time Peruna. They want the Peruna that their Fathers and Mothers used to take. The old Peruna is now called Katarino. If you drugist or dealer does not keep it for sale write the Katarino Company, Columbus, Ohio, and they will tell you all about it.

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 31—Letter carriers of San Francisco first grand masquerade ball will be given at the Auditorium Page and Filmore streets, Saturday evening, November 2. The affair is given for the benefit of the convention from the convention meets here the coming year. The letter carriers and postal employees are assisting the committee having the ball in charge. Prominent men have been selected to act as judges.

The grand march will commence at 7:30 o'clock and the dancing will be kept up all night. Following in the arrangement committee, J. Landis Hammon Jr. returned last night from their trip to the East. Councilman Hammon was about Park street this morning and related to friends an interesting story of his trip east which included witnessing several games of the world's series between New York and Boston. He saw New York win one and witnessed two defeats for the Giants. The councilman and his wife visited Buffalo, New York, Philadelphia, Washington, Chicago, St. Louis and Salt Lake City.

One of the most interesting side trips was the trip through the New York Ghetto, where the people only speak Yiddish language for miles and miles. New York Chinatown was a disappointment after Alcatraz in San Francisco. The Alcatraz was the show spot in the different cities and a most interesting trip from start to finish.

MEDALS FOR MUSICIANS.

STANFORD UNIVERSITY, Oct. 31—Stanford musicians who compose the music for the junior opera, which will be presented in the assembly hall next spring, will receive medals for their original work, as well as the works of the others.

The purpose of offering medals to the successful writers is to encourage a custom which was started only a few years ago of students writing original manuscripts to be presented by the junior class.

HURT IN GAME

Pearl and McKim in Bad Condition Following Struggle With Waratahs.

UNIVERSITY OF CALIFORNIA Oct. 31.—Two members of the Cal team, Reiter and Peart, were led off the field in yesterday's football game against the Waratahs, but both Reiter and McKim, one of the best of the forward pack, and Sterling Peart, the center half-back, will be out for several days. Both now were unconscious when picked up this morning but McKim, at least, is in a serious condition.

Reiter, who was taken off the field in every game of view that has been played in California Field this year, with the exception of San Fran, was severely injured with a fracture intensity during both halves in the second, forgetting the game on several occasions to do personal battle.

In one of these skirmishes Peart was dealt a fierce blow in the back of the head, which rendered him unconscious for half a minute. He returned to the game but had to be taken out during the second half. He was removed to the Student Gymnasium, where he remained during the night under the care of physicians. He left the infirmary this morning, and expects to be in practice again later in the week.

McKim received even more serious injuries necessitating treatment by physicians. Though able to walk when he left the game, he was in a dazed condition, and kept asking his comrades who had won the game, apparently being unable to grasp their meaning when they replied. He also received medical attention, part of which was the taking of several stitches over his eye, where he had been badly cut.

Today McKim, as well as Peart, was on the campus. He had suffered some sort of internal injury, however, as he was troubled with a hemorrhage from the mouth during the day.

Fraser, a Waratah forward, was injured in the ankle, but not seriously. Tasker, five-eighths for the Australians, was removed from the game for rough tactics.

The wedding day has not been set.

MISS MILDRED LEISER.

ALAMEDA, Oct. 31.—Miss Mildred Leiser and Harry Shamsberg, who a few days ago told of their engagement, are being generally congratulated by their mutual friends.

Miss Leiser is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. L. Leiser of 221 Lincoln Avenue. She is a former Alameda school girl and a warm favorite with her many friends. Shamsberg is a well known young business man of San Francisco, prominent Alameda fraternal member and improvement club worker. He is a member of Alameda Chapter of Native Sons and one of the chief workers of the Alameda Improvement Club. He is connected with other lodges and organizations.

The wedding day has not been set.

ALAMEDA MAYOR
SIGNING BONDS

Affixing His Signature to 160 Papers Comprising Issue of $158,000.

ALAMEDA, Oct. 31.—Mayor W. H. Noy is busy in his office today signing the 160 bonds of the $158,000 bond issue, which was sold recently to M. W. Hailey and Co. of San Francisco.

The bonds will be delivered to the purchaser tomorrow morning at 11 o'clock. The Mayor signs "W. H. Noy" to each of the 160 individual bonds. Of the issue $120 bonds are for $100 each and 40 are for $950 each. The bonds run for 40 years. The $1000 bonds are printed in green and the $950 bonds in bronze. The first signed bond issue Mayo Noy has been called on to sign, the other being of $150,000 for school purposes. The executive remarked today that he did not expect to be called upon to sign another issue. Former Mayor E. K. Taylor had a still larger hand-signing job during his incumbency, signing the $300,000 park and playground issue, which caused the most prolonged and bitter council wrangle in the history of the city.

Reiter, who was taken off the field in every game of view that has been played in California Field this year, with the exception of San Fran, was severely injured with a fracture intensity during both halves in the second, forgetting the game on several occasions to do personal battle.

In one of these skirmishes Peart was dealt a fierce blow in the back of the head, which rendered him unconscious for half a minute. He returned to the game but had to be taken out during the second half. He was removed to the Student Gymnasium, where he remained during the night under the care of physicians. He left the infirmary this morning, and expects to be in practice again later in the week.

McKim received even more serious injuries necessitating treatment by physicians. Though able to walk when he left the game, he was in a dazed condition, and kept asking his comrades who had won the game, apparently being unable to grasp their meaning when they replied. He also received medical attention, part of which was the taking of several stitches over his eye, where he had been badly cut.

Today McKim, as well as Peart, was on the campus. He had suffered some sort of internal injury, however, as he was troubled with a hemorrhage from the mouth during the day.

Fraser, a Waratah forward, was injured in the ankle, but not seriously. Tasker, five-eighths for the Australians, was removed from the game for rough tactics.

The wedding day has not been set.

STEPHENSON MUST ANSWER

Wealthy Cattleman, Exonerated by Coroner's Jury, Held on Charge.

Despite the fact that the coroner's jury brought in a verdict exonerating A. J. Stephenson, a wealthy cattleman of Newnan, California, in connection with the death of Anton Pimental, Chief of Police Walter J. Petersen this morning caused the issuance of a warrant charging Stephenson with murder, following a conference with Prosecuting Attorney W. J. Hennessey. The warrant was served to Capt. Charles F. Agnew.

The action of the police is a tacit criticism of the coroner's jury. Although Stephenson was out on bonds on charges of driving his automobile while under the influence of liquor and of driving on the wrong side of the street when he ran down Pimental, when the investigation was conducted by the coroner's office, no witnesses were brought before the jury to prove either Stephenson was driving recklessly or the jury believed Stephenson was blame in the matter and brought in a verdict of accidental death.

The police take a different view of the case. They declare that Stephenson was under the influence of liquor when he ran down young Pimental on the Twelfth street dam a week ago Sunday night, and that he was driving in a reckless manner on the wrong side of the street. Pimental was running home, and was on the right side of the street when he was run down. He was thrown to the pavement and sustained a fracture of the cranium and internal injuries and injuries to the vertebrae, causing his death some hours later at the Roosevelt hospital in Berkeley.

DEATH IS TRAGIC.

The death of Pimental was particularly tragic, as he left a young widow and two children. Pimental was a teetotaler.

The inquest was held at the Berkeley branch morgue yesterday, but no evidence was introduced to show Stephenson's condition at the time of the accident, or whether he was driving carefully. The jury failed to place any charge against the wealthy cattleman and brought in a verdict of accidental death.

Stephenson was arrested by Sergeant Frank Ahern immediately after the accident on two charges, one of driving on the wrong side of the street in violation of the city ordinances and the other of driving an automobile while under the influence of alcohol, violation of state law. Stephenson was also booked on a murder charge, although no complaint was issued until today.

The two cases came before Judge George Samuels this morning and were put over till November 14 for trial. The murder case was continued pending the filing of a complaint, which was done after court before Prosecuting Attorney W. J. Hennessey. The charge being murder.

Stephenson will be arraigned tomorrow morning before Judge Samuels on the murder charge. Charles E. Snack is attorney for the defendant.

HARCOURT AWAITING WORD FROM EAST

Actor Will Waive Extradition if Not Allowed His Freedom.

George Harcourt, an actor with "The Round Up" company, who was arrested Tuesday night under his true name, John Holmes at the Macdonough theater on a charge filed in New Jersey, is in the city prison awaiting word from the East as to whether he can telegraph a cash bail for his appearance in court there to give him time to conclude his engagement with the theatrical company. The answer has not yet been received, and if Harcourt's request is refused, he will waive all legal technicalities of extradition and go East with Police Lieutenant Edmund Leigh, who is now in San Francisco with a prisoner in charge.

Harcourt is charged on a grand jury indictment from Jersey City, N. J., with bigamy, the charge being brought by his second wife, Mrs. Genevieve Harcourt of Elizabeth, N. J. Harcourt denies that he knowingly committed bigamy, as he had received word that his first wife had died some years before.

"This is a farce-up on my wife's part to get our marriage annulled," said Harcourt. "I have information that she wishes to marry again, and she is taking this means to gain her freedom. I think the case can be successfully fought."

TO STOP CROWING OF ROOSTER, STRETCH NECK

EDITOR'S TRIBUNE. As one of the many residents in Berkeley whose sleep is disturbed before daylight by our neighbors' roosters summoning the sun to get up, I am enclosing the following recipe which appears in the Farm and Fireside: "To keep roosters from crowing early in the morning put them in coops so low that they cannot stand erect and raise their heads. A rooster is able to walk but not standing up and stretching his neck."

One entertaining and sinister idea every time that roosters growl and crowing has not been offered as a satisfactory cure. In the district where I reside the whole neighborhood has to go sleepless just when it suits the clarion chorus to get me going. That's the reason the neighborhood will follow the useful recipe. In the cause of peace, AM.

Yours faithfully,

RODGER COX.

OPPOSES ATTEMPT TO CARVE UP THE COUNTY

'NATIVE' SHOWS DANGER OF PLOT

What Proposed Amendment Would Do Is Set Forth.

Many Anti-Annexation Amendments Are Planned for Tonight.

MANY MEETINGS TONIGHT. Speakers against the sixth amendment will address the following meetings tonight:

Alameda Improvement club, 1538 Webster street, at 8 o'clock—Joseph R. Knowland on Panama canal; H. P. Miller on amendment No. 6.

Debate at city hall of San Leandro between A. J. Denison and George Ayres, representing the Greater San Francisco club, 8 o'clock.

Jefferson school rally, corner of 16th and Sacramento streets, Berkeley—Wilbur Walker, speaker; 8 o'clock.

Centerville Chamber of Commerce at Centerville, 8 o'clock—W. E. Gibson speaker.

By W. H. WELLBYE of the Executive Committee of the Alameda County Tax Association.

When every loyal spirit of Alameda county is exerting every effort to preserve the integrity of the county it appears to me that it is up to the natives to outdo all others in the fight to defeat the influences at work trying to rob us of our greatness and cheat our constantly increasing prosperity.

I am proud that I am a native of Alameda county, that I have been reared within its borders and that my home has always been within its confines. In Alameda county I can find my best friends, my most cherished acquaintances; my most esteemed associate. It is to these that I wish to direct this heart-to-heart talk on a danger that threatens the future of the county and in threatening that also strikes at the welfare of the state we love and honor.

I am not here to complain: These remarks are directed toward the proposed annexation amendment on which you will be called upon to pass judgment next Tuesday.

I am against it!

WOULD DIVIDE SECTION.

You have all heard and read enough of and concerning it to have a fair idea of its general intent. You know it would permit the division of the county—permit of San Francisco coming over here, slicing off what section she might desire, leaving the rest to work out its own salvation.

I am against the carving of Alameda county. I am against any measure that would permit its dismemberment. I am against county division under any guise.

Being a native of the county, I glory in the wisdom it has made. I am proud of its progress and take pride in its property. I am jealous of its future. I have seen a great city grow on that spot it selected as its seat of government—a city that is attracting the attention of the country and is preparing to invite the commerce of the world to enjoy the facilities it is expending millions to provide.

ON EVE OF GREATNESS.

We are only on the eve of our greatness. While we expand commercially and compel a recognition of our importance as a leading factor in California's growth and wealth, we are also stepping into that proud designation as the garden spot of the Pacific and the playground of the world.

Our civic pride, our love for our country, our glory in the enterprise that has attracted the favorable comment of all the nation should entitle us to a ballot on any measure calculated to rob us of our identity, despise us of the fruits of our toll and deprive us of the reward of our well directed efforts.

That is just what the proposed consolidation amendment would do. That is what it is intended to do. It has been stated that the adoption of the amendment in itself would not accomplish this. That is true. But why make the danger even possible when it can be crushed completely by the defeat of the measure?

EASY TO UNDERSTAND.

It can readily be understood what would happen to Alameda county if San Francisco were given this opportunity to gain control of our destinies, through the adoption of the proposed amendment. A vicious feature of it is the provision that a majority instead of a two-thirds vote

SIDNEY AYRES IS ACCUSED OF BIGAMY FORMER WIFE MAKES CHARGE PUBLIC

SIDNEY AYRES, WHO IS CHARGED WITH BIGAMY BY FORMER WIFE, IN LETTER TO PUBLICATION.

Actor Declares First Spouse Deserted Him and He Secured Divorce Before Oakland Marriage

A charge of bigamy has been brought against Sidney Ayres, former matinee idol of Oakland, by his former wife who, in a letter to the Dramatic Mirror, says that there has never been a legal separation between herself and the vaudeville actor and that the news of his recent marriage to Miss Anne Francis, an Oakland girl, "must be an error."

The statement of the former Mrs. Ayres, published in the Dramatic Mirror, reads:

"Editor Dramatic Mirror—Sir: In last week's issue of the Dramatic Mirror there is a notice of the marriage of Sidney Ayres in Oakland, Cal., to a Miss Anne Francis. This must be an error. I am Mrs. Sidney Ayres, and Mr. Ayres and I have never been legally separated. There is a suit pending in the New York courts against Mr. Ayres for desertion, non-support and alimony. As there is no divorce, a marriage on his part would be bigamy."

"Very sincerely,

MRS. SIDNEY AYRES.

Bingham, N. Y., Oct. 17, 1912.

Concerning this charge, Ayres, who is playing in Seattle at the Orpheum in a play of his own writing, "A Call for the Wild," authorized the following statement last night:

"I am not a bigamist—not a fool, as I was."

That would have been in marrying again without a legal right to do so. The fact that I was divorced became generally known through newspaper publicity at the time I secured the decree. I received my decree of divorce in Portland through John Logan, my attorney, the decree of divorce having been granted at Oregon City, Ore., some time last August. It is all of record in the courts of Oregon.

"The former wife deserted me five years ago. When at last I sued for divorce, my notice was mailed to her at her last known address, Paul's Hotel, Woodbury, N. J., and again in New York. And if she did not receive these notices it is no fault of mine. Legal service was made.

"Having received my divorce I was at liberty to marry again, not of course soon in the State of Oregon, but our marriage was recently celebrated in Oakland. It was legal and lawful in every way.

"As far as the charge of the former Mrs. Ayres which I heard of for the first time this afternoon when a friend called my attention to the article in the 'Dramatic Mirror,' I shall pay no attention to it. The newspaper publicity is distasteful, of course, but I suppose there is no way of avoiding it.

"I have nothing to say against the woman making this charge. She cannot harm me any more, for I have done no wrong."

That would enable the division of the county. This really means that a minority of the qualified electors could dismember Alameda county.

It is only a few days ago that we were informed that more than 20,000 illegal voters had been discovered across the bay. They are there for the purpose of voting for this amendment. How easy it would be for San Francisco to colonize this side of the bay to carry out a scheme to take from us the best part of our territory.

That is just what the proposed amendment would do. That is what it is intended to do. It has been stated that the adoption of the amendment in itself would not accomplish this. That is true. But why make the danger even possible when it can be crushed completely by the defeat of the measure?

FISHERS TO DOCK AT LOCAL WHARVES

Repairs to Steamer Camino Completed at the United Engineering Works.

With the appropriation of funds for deepening the water between Franklin and Franklin streets comes the announcement that several large fishing concerns located on the bay will handle their fish direct from sea over local wharves. Already a number of individuals are beginning to take advantage of superior conditions for handling fish on this side. Among the concerns likely to be interested in the move are the California Fish Company, First California Fish Landing Company, Western Fish Company and Oakland Fish Company.

Repairs to the steamer Camino were completed at the local yards of the United Engineering Works this morning and the vessel shifted around to Long wharf to load freight for the north.

Vessels of the lumber fleet arriving in the inner harbor during the last twenty-four hours included the steam schooners G. C. Lindner, Daisy Gandy and Phoenix.

With three or four barges in tow loaded with timber poles, the tug Valiant left this morning for Sacramento. The poles will be used in and about Sacramento.

The amendment must be defeated to insure the future progress and prosperity of the county.

WILLIAM H. DONAHUE AND JUDGE F. B. OGDEN INSURED OF ELECTION TO TWO VACANCIES ON SUPERIOR BENCH

District Attorney Advocates Non-Partisan Election of Jurists and Has Followed Law; Bar Association Endorses

THE overwhelming majorities given District Attorney William H. Donahue and Judge F. B. Ogden at the September primary practically insures their election next Tuesday to the two vacancies upon the Superior Bench.

The primary law makes the election of Superior Judges non-partisan. The names, William H. Donahue and F. B. Ogden, as nominees for the Superior Bench will appear upon every ballot in a place remote from any party ticket for other officials, in compliance with the primary law.

Each voter has the opportunity to vote for two candidates, Judge Ogden to succeed himself, and Donahue to succeed Judge John Ellsworth, whose voluntary retirement leaves the second vacancy.

District Attorney Donahue has long advocated the non-partisan election of judges, and in his own campaign has followed the non-partisan law to the letter. Since his name was mentioned as a candidate, Donahue has not appeared at a political meeting, or made a single political speech, but has attended to his duties as District Attorney just the same as before.

ENDORSE CANDIDACY.

Donahue is vice-president of the State Bar Association of California, and the lawyers of Alameda county have almost unanimously endorsed his candidacy for Superior Judge as follows:

We, the undersigned, members of the Bar of Alameda county, having heard with regret that after twenty years of noble service, Hon. John Ellsworth has announced his intention to retire from the Superior Bench of Alameda county, knowing that this office of Superior Judge is and should be non-partisan and non-political, and being desirous that the vacancy to be caused by the retirement of Judge Ellsworth should be filled by a man of moral fitness, proved legal attainments and a judicial temperament, take pleasure in endorsing the candidacy of Hon. William H. Donahue for Superior Judge of Alameda county.

BEST SHOW OF YEAR
PUT ON STAGE BY WHEELMEN

Fast Main Event and the Well Fought Preliminaries Give Satisfaction.

By BERT LOWRY

"The best boxing show we have had this year." That was the undivided opinion of every fan that piled out of Piedmont Pavilion last night at the conclusion of the Oakland Wheelmen's monthly exhibition.

Right off the reel at 8:30 p. m. the fast began and never was there a dull moment while the 16 fighters who took part in the show were in the ring. First on the card came Jimmie Ross and Eddie Stump, and right away it was evident that the floor from the impact of Jimmie's right on his new and then he stayed.

After a short round James Conner and Koenig fought each other out in the first five rounds and the result was a hit tame, but the contest was a hammer while it lasted.

The semi-warm-up proved stern-leagued action with the Lester getting the upper hand over veteran Joe Alcorn. The Lester boy is a green one at the game of hit and get away, but he is a rough and ready lad and the crowd took him as such does to water for the way he fought after his more experienced opponent.

In the main event Frank Moran of Pittsburg was awarded a decision over Charles Flynn of San Francisco after 10 rounds of fighting. Moran weighed in at 160 pounds but had to hustle all the time to earn the bracket. He fought a game up hill fight from tap of going to finish and when he left the ring he cheered them and again for the gameness.

Truly it was a great card that the Wheelmen staged and with the way the affair was handled made it the one best show of the year at Piedmont pavilion.

WEEKS AND LOGAN ARE SIGNED.

During the intermission between the semi-warm-up and the main announcement was made that Billy Weeks the brawny middleweight from Redwood City and Frank Logan the Manila soldier had been matched to box 10 rounds at the pavilion next Saturday evening, November 3.

This has the earmarks of being a battle royal deal for both men can and will mix and both are about as game as a cornered lion.

With the main event, Matchmaker John will have four other bouts and stated that he would endeavor to gather together just as good a bunch of preliminary fighters as were staged last night. If he does he can rest assured of having another banner house to greet his efforts.

HOPPE TO MEET McFARLAND.

Next on the pugilistic map will be the four-round bouts under the auspices of the Richmond Club at Dreamland Rink, San Francisco, next Friday night.

Starting with the semi-warm-up bout between two cork-and-tinners of the game, Dan Curran will continue to introduce boxers until he gets to Roy Moore and Ad. Zotto in a semi-wind-up to the show. The time will be 10 p. m. with a four-round bout between Tommy McFarland and Willie Hoppe.

This is to be one of the first real tests as a fighting man that Hoppe has been forced to take previous to his signing with McFarland. He has been making more park-and-benders, with the exception of Reddy Watson.

Hoppe whipped Watson, getting a four-round decision over him after many misadventures of pulling and pushing, with many fans of the opinion that Watson would eventually have worn Hoppe down and beaten him.

McFarland took Watson over the four-round bout and won him good, and he did the trick again in a ten-round bout before the Oakland Wheelmen. At this rate, it looks as though McFarland is all the best, and on past performances so far, the boxer most to look forward to is a four-round bout between Tommy McFarland and Willie Hoppe.

This is to be one of the first real tests as a fighting man that Hoppe has been forced to take previous to his signing with McFarland.

Now it is true that he has met second and third-raters in most cases, but he has cleaned them up in big time, and his莽狂的 style of boxing has made him a favorite with the fans.

McFarland, too, has always shown ability to keep his opponent going, and the fact that he has been able to do this the McFarland-Hoppe will be one of the best seats in the box for many months.

THIS FIGHTER HAD A WIFE FOR A COACH AT RINGSIDE

It is rather unusual for a woman to be mixed up in any way in a boxing match, but Mrs. Isabelle Til, wife of Paul Til, the French lightweight, has been making a name for herself in Australian boxing circles. She is a little Frenchwoman attends all the fights in which her "hubby" is engaged, and is always at the ringside to watch Paul's every movement. During the recent battle between Paul and Young, C. C., she sat in the little Frenchwoman received a straight left on the nose and the claret began to flow. The little Frenchwoman could not stand for this and rushed to the office of the management and asked that Paul be deducted from the record for hitting her in the clinches, which she said would not be tolerated. In France, however, the rules were not transgressed, according to the referee, and everything went along smoothly.

Now that you have kept your promises, we will live up to our team," said Captain, "and brought the pennant to the best city in all the world, so shall I keep mine. Up there, position heavenly."

"In the sky. Well, that's the best."

Then Allan T. Baum made a few remarks and added, "I am glad to see that it is a bit of a win. He spoke in happy strain of the way the boys of the league had performed and wished that they had done better than they did. He said his first year as a baseball magnate it was the most enjoyable he had ever had and it was his sincere hope and he promised to be the best again if they brought home the pennant.

"Now that you have kept your promises, we will live up to our team," said Captain, "and brought the pennant to the best city in all the world, so shall I keep mine. Up there, position heavenly."

As the local reporters won the baseball championship last year and as considerable rivalry exists between the two clubs, the promise for a stirring game is good. Here are the lineups:

It is rather unusual for a woman to be mixed up in any way in a boxing match, but Mrs. Isabelle Til, wife of Paul Til, the French lightweight, has been making a name for herself in Australian boxing circles. She is a little Frenchwoman attends all the fights in which her "hubby" is engaged, and is always at the ringside to watch Paul's every movement. During the recent battle between Paul and Young, C. C., she sat in the little Frenchwoman received a straight left on the nose and the claret began to flow. The little Frenchwoman could not stand for this and rushed to the office of the management and asked that Paul be deducted from the record for hitting her in the clinches, which she said would not be tolerated. In France, however, the rules were not transgressed, according to the referee, and everything went along smoothly.

As the local reporters won the baseball championship last year and as considerable rivalry exists between the two clubs, the promise for a stirring game is good. Here are the lineups:

COLLEGE NO PLACE FOR POOR GIRLS

RIGOROUS TEST OF GERMAN FOOD

The President of Mt. Holyoke
Says Working Way in the School is Obsolete.

SOUTH HADLEY, Mass., Oct. 31.—Miss Mary Wooley, president of Mount Holyoke college, whose recent remarks about girls who work their way through college have caused a great deal of discussion, added to her statement in an interview:

"Snobbery is not at the root of my attitude," said Miss Wooley, "but a conviction that no girl can serve two masters, her college and her pocket-book. The impression seems to obtain that this college was founded for the poor girl, that it was to be a college where a girl could give service in return for an advanced education.

"This is not the case.

"I have several specific reasons for my attitude on the work question. One is the small amount that a girl is paid for her labor. We never help poor students to give scholarships to girls that prove their ability to give promise of being credit to their alma mater. These scholarships only reduce the cost of tuition, not board. The girl who has to hurry through her studies in order to do some fine laundry work for her customers, who has to skimp her laboratory work in order to run errands to pay for her meals, invariably drops back in her class work.

"The majority of women's colleges are gradually coming to the conclusion at which we have arrived, that girls must be prevented from starving their way through college."

CANNING INDUSTRY DEVELOPS RAPIDLY AND IS STIMULATED BY PRIZE OFFERS.

At the annual agricultural exposition, under the management of the German Agricultural society at Strasburg, June 5 to 19, 1912, special attention will be given to canned goods and conserves, reports Consul Milo A. Jewett, from Kiel.

The canning and conserve industry is an important and growing interest in this country. This industry has been stimulated by the great growth of the German population in this country, the increase of the army and the perfection of its commissar department, the development of German colonies, and the increasing consumption of preserved and prepared foods in all parts of the German empire.

To stimulate interest in this business and to improve the quality of the conserves, the German Agricultural society (Office für die Deutsche Ernährung, Berlin) has organized a special department for the exhibition of conserves at the Berliner exposition, which is held under its auspices each year in some part of Germany. Prizes and diplomas are given for the most excellent preserved food products. A special feature of this competitive exhibition is the testing of conserves for their keeping qualities. Preserves, meats, milk, fish, shellfish, fruits, vegetables, bakery products, etc., are also entered and submitted for the keeping tests on or before September 30. The chief test is a sea voyage of four months from Bremen to Australia and return.

SEVEN YEARS FROM PROMISE TO REFUSAL

NEW YORK, Oct. 31.—Miss Ruth L. Trufant, who says she abandoned an opera career to become the wife of Henry G. Williams, proprietor of the Hotel York, New York, for $70,000, re-allegations of breach of promise, has filed in the Supreme Court the bill of particulars which Williams demanded.

The first time Williams proposed, says Miss Trufant, was on Christmas day, 1901. She was playing then in "Hans Heinen in Norland." Miss Trufant declares that the hotelman renewed his proposal seven years ago, and she would marry the plaintiff as soon as the law permitted him, in being married at the time. Miss Trufant and Williams subsequently met in Europe, and the singer alleged that in Paris, Milan and other cities he again told her of his affection. She quotes Williams as saying, "If you do not marry me I will have to shoot myself. I will never go back to America until you say you will marry me." Miss Trufant also says that Williams told her that he would settle $50,000 on her. Because of these promises, says Miss Trufant, she gave up her studies for the opera stage.

As Miss Trufant's dream of love began to become a reality, so too it ended on the same day, seven years later, for, as she says, Williams told her last Christmas day that he could not marry her, being already married and unable to get a divorce.

FIFTEEN COUSINS CONTEST WILL

CLAIM LAWYER WHO GAVE HIS WEALTH TO SCHOOL HAD UNsound MIND.

BOSTON, Oct. 31.—A contest over the will of Charles H. Pratt, a lawyer, who left his estate in trust until it reached $750,000, when it was to be paid to the Massachusetts Institute of Technology to form the Pratt School of Naval Architecture and Marine Engineering, came up before Judge George of the probate court. The estate is appraised at $693,005.45.

Fifteen cousins object to the will on the ground that the testator was mentally unsound when he executed it.

Miss Mary F. Burrows, a Christian Science nurse, attended the testator during his last illness. She declined to answer some questions relating to her life and property before she began to act as a nurse.

She was questioned by Sherman L. Whipple, counsel for the contestants after she had testified to the formal execution of the will under the direction of Charles P. Choate, counsel for the testator.

Q. Were you there for the purpose of telling Mr. Pratt he was not sick? asked Whipple. A. No.

Q. What did you do as a nurse? A. Just tried to take care of him needs as a nurse.

Q. That is too general. What did you do in particular? She said she had no diploma and was not a graduate nurse before becoming a Christian Science nurse. She had general experience with the sick, she said.

She could not recall when she first met Miss Lucy D. Phelps, a Christian Science practitioner. It was before witness became a Christian Science nurse. It was not at the suggestion of Mrs. Phelps that she became a Christian Science nurse. She suggested that she care for the sick, she said.

Miss Burrows said she kept no record of the pulse, temperature and other data. Mr. Pratt was under the treatment of Mrs. Phelps, which consisted of prayer.

Mr. Pratt said he could not say how often the treatment was administered.

She did not offer prayer directly. When asked if she did indirectly she replied that she was trying to make care for her own self. She thought Mrs. Phelps was there about every day.

Q. To your knowledge did she ever treat him with electric currents? A. I do not know.

Q. What did you know about electric currents? A. I do not know.

Q. What do you know about her doing with Mr. Pratt? A. I do not know.

Q. You cannot tell one thing you saw her doing? A. I saw her arranging flowers.

Q. What else, indicating treatment or otherwise? A. I cannot answer.

Q. Did you see Mrs. Phelps in an attitude of prayer? A. I do not remember.

Q. You sincerely mean you cannot tell me? A. Yes, I do not know.

Q. What is that you had rather tell? A. I do not understand how to answer.

Q. How are you sure treatment was being administered? A. I cannot tell.

Earlier in the day Daniel W. Kingsley, real estate broker, Hotel Redwoodfield, sold arrangements for the sale of the building occupied by the testator were made by Mr.

he did not know what kind. Mr. Pratt signed his name on the strength of each word of his.

Mr. Pratt was ill. Mr. Pratt was ill and was when he signed the instrument.

Gordon K. Crispin, who with Miss Burrows and Mr. Kingsley witnessed the will, also testified in regard to the execution.

The hearing will be rescheduled Wednesday.

The contestants are Charles Pratt, Mrs. Louise Hopper, Frank Pratt, Mrs. John Marion, Emma Pratt, Mrs. Helen Pratt, Arthur W. Hooper and Ethel Carruth, all of Boston; Mrs. Rose A. Brown of Albany; Mrs. Maryanna Martin of Ascut-

AID COUNTESS IN BREAKING A WILL

endeavor to Dispose of Estate
Valued at the Sum of $3,000,000.

NEW YORK, Oct. 31.—Alphonse and Hubert de Stuers, brothers, died in the Supreme Court an answer to the suit of their sister, Margaret de Stuers Oberndorf, wife of Count Alfred von Oberndorf, a German diplomat, to break the will of their mother, the late Countess Zborowska.

The will disposes of an estate whose value is estimated at $3,000,000. The brothers, who are defendants through a technicality of the law, agree with the complaint that the will is invalid.

CHICAGO, Oct. 31.—Chicago's "baby court," the only one of its kind in the country, was thrown open to the infantile public yesterday morning, and through its doors, opened with the usual fanfare, was reunited after months of separation.

The "baby court" will be opened in connection with the domestic relations court. Baby and mother can play or rest here until the mother's case is called.

The tiny tots, with books and toys, will receive a hearty welcome.

Parents and charitable visitors will see that they have all the fun they wish, and make all the noise they please, and that they culties into the Court of Domestic Relations, across the corridor from the rest-room and nursery for mothers and children, as it is known, and final separation seemed their only recourse.

The daughter was left to play in the nursery.

Judge W. N. Gemmill continued the case. The mother came into the nursery, picked up her baby, cuddled it to her breast and played with it. The father had lost shape. The child ran to him and threw herself into his arms.

"Sorry, I'm sorry," he said to his wife, "and if you think you have me back again, why—say, here's something for the kid."

He gave her some money.

During the last year she has settled 275 cases out of court. They call her "mender of broken hearts," these women who find it necessary to take their unhappy affairs to her, and she does it with her tact, her knowledge and her tact.

HOUSE-WARMING IN COURT.

"Now I have more time, more space and more privacy to comfort and instruct the women" she said yesterday, "and I wish them to come to me with their troubles before they take them into the court."

A formal house-warming was held in the "baby courtroom" after the close of the day's extra-long afternoon. Tea, cake and candies were served around. Judge Gemmill's courtroom was crowded when it was announced that several addresses were to be made.
